This year's 'Start-up Mela 4.0' organised by the St. Joseph's University's Entrepreneurship Cell, in association with the Public Relations Office, on Monday, saw over 100 start-ups from diverse sectors and featured over 10 venture capitalists, offering a unique platform for innovation, networking, and growth.

During the event, the institution's Innovation Council was also launched, the university said.
